

Resources for Residents Interested in Pediatric Nephrology

ASPEN Website: <https://www.aspneph.org/#>

This is a great resource, with information on a career in nephrology (Trainee Info → Careers in Nephrology <https://www.aspneph.org/careers-in-nephrology/>), job listings (Marketplace), as well as upcoming meetings, advocacy opportunities (JELF Scholar Program), and video interviews (ASPEN Foundation → History Project) with some of the leaders in the field!

Council of Pediatric Subspecialties (CoPS) Website:

This resource includes practical information on what it's like to pursue a career in pediatric nephrology, and useful resources for the application process at <https://www.pedsubs.org/about-cops/subspecialty-descriptions/nephrology/>

IPNA Website: <https://ipna-online.org/>

For those interested in global health, the International Pediatric Nephrology Association offers information on global initiatives (including World Kidney Day) as well programs that unite pediatric nephrologists on the international level.

For those interested in global health, consider checking out the IPNA website, or contacting members of the ASPEN Global Health Committee (ASPEN Website → Committees → Global Health). Also consider checking out this recent article: <http://news.unhealthcare.org/som-vital-signs/2020/may-7/global-health-initiatives-in-pediatric-nephrology-1>

ERAS: <https://students-residents.aamc.org/training-residency-fellowship/article/eras-fellowship-timeline/>. Residents interested in applying for fellowship should continue to follow updates on the ERAS website regarding the application and timeline.

Links to program websites participating in the match can be found at:
